ANSWER KEY TO FIND YOUR WAY THROUGH THE MAZE

This is an activity we will call a grammar maze. The rules are simple:

Read each sentence and decide if it is correct or incorrect in grammar, spelling or punctuation.
If the sentence is correct, follow the arrow to a blue place.
If it isn't correct, follow the arrow to a red place.
Try to reach the finish line by checking each of the sentences.

Here are the sentences:

1. There are rarely any apostrophes in plurals, if ever. Grammatically correct, and as for its meaning, the apostrophe goes after the s to show ownership e.g. "the Simpsons' popularity" with some rare exceptions for unusual plural forms such as "men's, women's or children's clothes".
2. Their are many ways to get to the end of this maze. Grammatically incorrect. There are many ways, depending on which path you choose, you'll make sentences to follow it.
3. If I where you, I'd like to work out my own grammar maze. Grammatically incorrect. If I were you, I'd use where in places like somewhere and anywhere.
4. Probably sooner rather than later you will get to the end. Grammatically and actually correct.
5. This looks like it is going to be a quick activity. Again, grammatically and actually correct.
6. Do you think you could write more than six sentences for your own maze? Ditto.
